KEY DUTIES

1. Participate and, in time, lead face-to-face education sessions in communities, including conducting discovery education in language.
2. To learn Yolŋu language, be genuinely interested in learning about Yolŋu culture, and learn and apply 'discovery education' methodology to support the goals and mission of ARDS.
3. To use ARDS language-based resources (including Yolŋu dictionary and correct spelling of Yolŋu words).
4. To produce audio education programs in collaboration with Yolŋu consultants.
5. Produce multimedia education programs in collaboration with the ARDS Multimedia Team, Yolŋu consultants, educators and participating stakeholders (eg DVDs, manuals, videos & radio plays etc).
6. Work as a team and assist colleagues, when needed, to organise project logistics, prepare reports and submission writing.
7. Prepare funding applications to expand and grow the work of ARDS while building partnerships, networking and collaborating with other service providers.
