

General Secretary Northern Synod Uniting Church in Australia

This key executive officer role for the Synod presents a wonderful opportunity for a person who has drive and creativity.

Do you have wide ranging experience within the Uniting Church in Australia at a leadership level? Are you a person who doesn't shy away from a challenge? Do you have a proven track record, leading organisational transition? Then this role may be where God is calling you next.

More than half the members of the Northern Synod are First Nations Peoples and part of the presbytery of the Northern Regional Council of Congress. The 'covenant' relationship is vital to who we are as a community of love and justice.

The Northern Synod has highly valued relationships with people from Indonesia which predate British settlement, and through the earliest missionaries of the 1900's with people of Oceania. Many of the current members of Synod come from these regions together with others of wide and diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds. This diversity is a rich blessing for the Northern Synod.

Expressions of interest due 26 September 2022, with interviews starting the following week. The position description is available through synod placements committees or directly from Rev Dr Michelle Cook chair of the joint nominating committee. Please send expressions of interest addressing the position description to Michelle Cook at Ppnachair@ns.uca.org.au
