

Children's/ Youth Trainer

Job Title:	Children's/Youth Trainer
Pay Range:	$67,000 - $78,000
Nungalinga College is a Public Benevolent Institution (PBI). This generates potential tax savings for all permanent employees.
Applications close:	28 th April 2023
Start Date:	Semester 2, 2023

Nungalinga College is the premier training institution for remote Indigenous church leaders. It is formally supported by the Anglican, Uniting and Catholic churches of the Northern Territory.

The College is looking for a full-time teacher with qualifications and experience in Children's/Youth Ministry. From 2024, the College will offer a new course to grow the skills and knowledge of Indigenous leaders to run talks, camps and other church activities and programs to meet the needs of children/youth. Over 95% of the students will come from remote, Northern Territory communities.

The College is seeking an active and enthusiastic Christian trainer to work within an ecumenical environment. Experience teaching in an EAL/D (English as an Additional Language/Dialect) context, and working/training with remote Indigenous leaders is highly desirable.

The College has secured funding for this new role until the end of 2026 at least. The role in 2023 will include Indigenous consultation and course design. Indigenous people are encouraged to apply, but this is not a requirement of the position.

Selection Criteria:

- A committed Christian believer and church member.
- Willingness to work sensitively and effectively within an environment that values Indigenous culture and Languages.
- Current Certificate IV in Training and Assessment (or willingness to obtain before commencement).
- Qualifications in Ministry and Theology and/or Children's/Youth work.
- Experience working with children/youth and families in remote Indigenous communities.
- EAL/D teaching experience.

Police Check and Ochre Card

All staff at Nungalinga are required to pass a Police Check and obtain an Ochre Card (for working with children). This is at the employee's expense and must be applied for at the time of commencing work.

If you cannot satisfactorily pass the Police Check and Ochre Card, you must discuss this with the College prior to commencing employment.
