

Ministry & Theology Trainer

Job Title:	Ministry & Theology Trainer
Pay Range:	$67,000 - $78,000
Nungalinya College is a Public Benevolent Institution (PBI). This generates potential tax savings for all permanent employees.
Applications close:	28 th April 2023
Start Date:	Semester 2, 2023

Nungalinya College is the premier training institution for Indigenous church leaders. It is formally supported by the Anglican, Uniting and Catholic churches of the Northern Territory.

The College is looking for a full-time teacher with qualifications and experience in Ministry & Theology. The College currently offers the courses 01741NAT Certificate III in Christian Ministry and Theology and 10742NAT Certificate IV in Christian Ministry and Theology to Indigenous students. These courses prepare students to serve and lead in their local community church context. Over 95% of the students come from remote, Northern Territory communities.

The College is seeking an active and enthusiastic Christian trainer to work within an ecumenical team of ministry and theology teachers. Experience teaching in an EAL/D (English as an Additional Language/Dialect) context, and working/training with remote Indigenous leaders is highly desirable.

The College has secured funding for this new role until the end of 2026 at least. Indigenous people are encouraged to apply, but this is not a requirement of the position.

Police Check and Ochre Card

All staff at Nungalinya are required to pass a Police Check and obtain an Ochre Card (for working with children). This is at the employee's expense and must be applied for at the time of commencing work.

If you cannot satisfactorily pass the Police Check and Ochre Card, you must discuss this with the College prior to commencing employment.

Selection Criteria:

- A committed Christian believer and church member.
- Willingness to work sensitively and effectively within an environment that values Indigenous culture and Languages.
- Current Certificate IV in Training and Assessment (or willingness to obtain before commencement).
- Qualifications in Ministry and Theology (Diploma/Graduate Certificate minimum).
- Experience working/training in remote Indigenous communities.
- EAL/D teaching experience.
